FACULTY NEWS

Professor Randy Barnett was interviewed concerning the nomination of Judge Robert Bork to the Supreme Court on ABC Talk Radio, a nationally syndicated listener call-in program originating from Los Angeles.

Professor Philip Hablutzel was a speaker on Wednesday, September 16, at the 1987 Non-Profit Conference held by the Illinois CPA Foundation. About 150 Illinois Accountants attended the all-day conference at the Hyatt Regency Chicago Hotel. Professor Hablutzel gave an hour presentation on the current statutory and case law of exposure to liability of directors, officers and volunteers of non-profit organizations.

Professor Jim Zuehl and his wife have a new addition to their family. On Sunday, September 13 at about 6:30 p.m. Professor Zuehl's wife gave birth to their son, Jake, who weighs 7 pounds, 14 ounces. Professor Zuehl and his family are doing very well.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Decalogue Society of Jewish Lawyers

The Decalogue Society of Jewish Lawyers will sponsor a presentation entitled, "MAKE YOUR INTERVIEWS SCORE FOR YOU," on Tuesday, September 22 at 12:00 noon in Room 204. In this presentation you will get the opportunity to do a tune-up on your interviewing skills by talking with a hiring partner from Sonnenschein, Nath and Rosenthal. It's never too late to profit from such state-of-the-art counsel! Lunch will be served.

International Moot Court

Those students who have expressed interest in the International Moot Court team must bring a dean's letter of good standing to the next meeting, which will be held today, Monday, September 21 at 4:00 p.m. in Room 204. You must attend this meeting or make arrangements with John Strzynski in Room 508 before Wednesday, September 23 in order to continue participating with the team.

International Law Careers Day

On Friday, October 30, the International Law Society will be hosting an all day conference on careers in international law. The purpose of the conference is to educate law students on how to find a job in international law; it will benefit first, second and even third-year law students.

Law students from around the country have been invited to the conference, and all Kent students are urged to attend. The registration fee includes all of the scheduled activities, including lunch at the Palmer House and a cocktail reception hosted by Sidley & Austin.

For more information, see the posters located in the building. To register, use one of our brochures which are available on the second floor. If you have any questions, ask Cyndi Burt (Room 225) or John Strzynski (Room 508).

International Law Society

We will meet on Tuesday, September 22 at 11:45 a.m. in Room 645. We will begin registration for International Law Careers Day, as well as further organize it. Also, we will discuss the budget, other plans for the semester, and begin to formulate a grant proposal.

Everyone interested in international law is encouraged to come, even if you have never been to a meeting before.

Hope to see you all there.

To All Moot Court Candidates

As of Wednesday, September 23 the rules for the candidacy program will be available in the College Office. Briefs are due October 20 by 6:00 p.m. Oral arguments are scheduled for November 20, 1987. Plan on attending the Moot Court Workshop for oral arguments on October 17 at 1:00 p.m.

All candidates are encouraged to check the Moot Court Bulletin Board (on the second floor across from the cafeteria) regularly for announcements. You will be held as having constructive notice of anything which is posted that pertains to candidates.

Anyone wishing to enter the candidacy program can pick up the problem from the College Office. Should any candidate have questions, please stop by the Moot Court Office on the first floor and speak with Karen Horseman or Scott Krueger.

Progressive Law Students for the Public Interest

A meeting of Progressive Law Students for the Public Interest is scheduled for Wednesday, September 23 at 12:00 noon in Room 224. All members who attended the last meeting should attend this one because the individual groups will be meeting. All students are also invited to attend.

Student Bar Association

FINANCE COMMITTEE: Budget requests for student organizations will be distributed on Monday, September 21. These requests should be filled out and returned to Bob Goldstein in the SBA office, on Monday, September 28.

COMPUTER COMMITTEE:

- 1) First-Year Students: Please let your computer lab instructors know your reaction to their teaching methods. Good? Bad? Many of these instructional lessons are new to Kent, and therefore, the staff in the Computer Center needs your input.
- 2) Students Skilled in Framework II: The Computer Center is looking for volunteers to help staff in the labs during the "critical times" when first-year papers are due. Please leave your name and number at the SBA office, attention: Robin Graine.

SPECIAL ELECTION: Campaigning begins on Monday, September 21 for the first-year representative candidates and for the fourth-year evening division representative. The special election will be held on Wednesday, September 30. Absentee ballots will be available on Monday, September 28 and Tuesday, September 29 at the SBA office. Candidates may attend the lottery drawing which determines the order of names on the ballots. This lottery will take place on Monday, September 29 in the SBA office.

The SBA Academic and Curriculum Committee Meeting is scheduled for Monday, September 21 at 5:30 p.m. in the SBA Office.

Committee Members:

Jennifer Soule, chair
Mary Fitzpatrick
Timi Boyd
Rick Rice
Judith Villarreal

Melissa Josephs
Chuck Sauer
Denise Debelle
Craig Sessemann

Please make every effort to attend!

The Kent Commentator deadline is Friday, September 25 at 12:00 noon.

All entries are welcome. Commentator Office is near the Bookstore on the 2nd floor.

The Futures Industry Assoc., National Futures Assoc., Chicago Board of Options Exchange, Chicago Board of Trade and the Chicago Mercantile Exchange are sponsoring a special Career Program on October 16, in Chicago. Students will have an opportunity to learn about the futures and options industries and more specifically about job opportunities offered at the various industry bodies. For details and registration materials, see Handout #9 in the Career Planning & Placement Office.

Public Interest Law Internship (PILI): 1988 Summer Program

The purpose of the PILI program is to provide law students and young lawyers with experience and training in the legal institutions serving the public interest. PILI pays a stipend of $3000 to each intern to work full-time for 10 weeks during the summer at any of the participating agencies. For detailed information about the agencies involved and the application procedures for both students and graduates see Handout #10 in the Career Planning & Placement Office.

Position Report: Computer-Accessed Placement Tool

David J. White & Assoc., consultants to law firms and corporate legal departments, announces its Position Report, which is a computer data base that lists available positions for summer associates, fresh grads and attorneys with one plus years experience. The report is accessed with a personal computer, modem and telephone by calling 670-6736. Fees are paid by the employer.

Cook County State's Attorney's Office: Volunteer Internships

The CCSA's Office has an ongoing need for student interns. These positions are available throughout the academic year, as well as during the summer. A "711" license is desirable but not mandatory. Each student is required to work a minimum of 10 hours per week. Supervision will be provided by an Asst. State's Attorney. For information and applications, see Handout #11 in the Career Planning and Placement Office.

U.S. Court of Appeals for the 9th Circuit: Law Clerk Positions

The Office of Staff Attorneys for the court, located in San Francisco, seeks applications from third year students for clerkships to begin August, 1988. Court law clerks work for the court as a whole, rather than for individual judges. For information as to application procedures, see Handout #12.

Minority Resume Referral Service: Communications Law

The Federal Communications Bar Assoc. established a Minority Recruitment Committee to encourage minority lawyers and law students to enter the practice of telecommunications law. The Committee established a resume referral service for interested students and employers. Resume deadline is September 23, 1987. For details about the service see Handout #13 in the Career Planning and Placement Office.
